Kathleen Short (Wife) appeals from the trial court's Judgment dissolving her marriage to Howard N. Short (Husband) and its two Amended Judgments entered September 20, 2010 on Wife's and Husband's Motions to Amend Judgment, respectively. Husband cross-appeals from the original judgment and from the trial court's denial of his motion to amend one of the September 20, 2010 Amended Judgments to include an order of interest on his award of marital property.

AFFIRMED IN PART and REVERSED and REMANDED IN PART.

Division Three Holds: The trial court's interpretation of the validity and terms of the prenuptial agreement, and its awards of attorney's fees, interest, and its current to judgment valuation of the parties' awards of property are supported by substantial evidence. The liquidating distributions to Wife in exchange for and in cancellation of her separate property minority stock interest in a dissolved corporation remain her separate property. All of the remaining determinations of the parties' separate and marital property and the valuations thereof are supported by substantial evidence.
